Chinese New Year

On behalf of the Government of Canada I would like to bring greetings and give my best wishes to the members of New Tang Dynasty Television and the Chinese community at this year's Chinese New Year Celebration.

You should take great pride in this extraordinary expression of traditional Chinese culture, as it is one of the most important holidays for Chinese people around the world. This unique world-renowned celebration is a brilliant example of the beauty and elegance of Chinese culture.

I wish you all an enjoyable celebration and a Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

John Baird, P.C., M.P.
