2008 Chinese New Year Spectacular

WHEREAS, Members of the City of Warrenville City Council wish to honor the Chinese New Year, the most colorful and important of China's festivals, and

WHEREAS, the Sound of Hope Radio, an independent Chinese language media, will sponsor a Chinese New Year Spectacular, whose mission is to have the people of the world rediscover the essence of true, traditional Chinese culture through a high-caliber, world-class performance. The 2008 Chinese New Year Spectacular is titled "Myths and Legends" and features 5000 years of time-honored folk tales that illustrate the heavenly cultural gifts bestowed upon China during its long reign of civilization. The artistic presentations feature traditional Chinese song and dance styles that focus primarily on Chinese classical dance, but also include vocal compositions and orchestral music, and

WHEREAS, the Sound of Hope aims to enrich the lives of the public and to promote racial harmony through media pluralism and cross cultural understanding, creating a unifying event for all people interested in Chinese culture; and

WHEREAS, the 2008 Chinese New Year Spectacular will be held at the Arie Crown Theater on January 25 and 26, 2008;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Warrenville gathered here this 5th day of November, 2007, do hereby extend to the members of the Sound of Hope Organization and the Chinese New Year Spectacular Organizing Committee in Chicago our sincerest congratulations and support for the 2008 Chinese New Year Spectacular festivities, as well as our best wishes for continued success in all their endeavors.

Dated this 5th day of November, 2007.

David L. Brummel
